“(6) In case the complaint is found to be false or frivolous, the cost and expenses of the inquiry or inspection initiated under sub-section (2) of section 76 A shall be borne by such person on whose complaint such inquiry or inspection is conducted.”

23. Insertion of new sections 76B to 76G.— After section 76A of the principal Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“76B. Inspection and scrutiny of co-operative credit society and other co-operative societies engaged in credit business.— (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 76A of the Act, the Registrar shall at least once in a financial year, cause an inspection of books of accounts of co-operative credit society or other co-operative societies engaged in credit business, by an officer not below the rank of Co-operative Officer with the assistance of one or more Senior/Junior Auditors if required. Such officer shall provide to the society, a copy of its report on such inspection.

Explanation: For the purpose of this section,—

(i) “Co-operative officer” means a person appointed as Co-operative Officer by the Registrar.

(ii) “Senior/Junior auditor” means person appointed as Senior/Junior auditor by the Registrar.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other State law for the time being in force and without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Registrar may at any time, cause a scrutiny to be made by an officer not below the rank of Co-operative Officer and if required with the assistance of one or more Senior/Junior Auditors, of the affairs of any co-operative credit society or other society and its books of accounts. A copy of the report of the scrutiny shall be furnished to the co-operative credit society or other society, if such society makes a request for the same or if any adverse action is contemplated against such society on the basis of the scrutiny.

(3) It shall be the duty of every Director or other officer or employee of the co-operative credit society or other society, as the case may be, to produce before any officer making an inspection under sub-section (1) or a inquiry under sub-section (2), all such books of accounts and other documents in his custody or power and to furnish him with any statements and information relating to the affairs of such society as the said officer may require within such time as such officer may specify. Any person making an inspection under sub-section (1) or a inquiry under sub-section (2) may obtain written statement of any Director or other officer or employee of the co-operative credit society or other society in relation to its business.

(4) The Registrar, after considering the report if he is of the opinion that the affairs of such society are being conducted to the detriment of the interests of its depositors, he may,—

(a) prohibit the society from receiving fresh deposits;

(b) prohibit the society from advancing fresh loans or reduce the loan sanctioning limit;

(c) issue direction to reduce the administrative and capital cost;

(d) issue such other direction as he may deem fit in the interest of such society in particular and members at large;

(e) if the Registrar is satisfied that the inspection report reveals serious financial or administrative irregularities or violation of the provisions of the Act, Rules, Bye-laws or any guidelines or notification or if he is satisfied that the financial or administrative affairs of the society are managed in a manner detrimental to the interest of the members, he shall recover such sum of money equivalent to the loss caused to the society from every person responsible for causing such loss and such act shall constitute offence in terms of section 118 of this Act.;

(f) direct to amalgamate, merge with other society or may order for liquidation for winding up of its affairs:

Provided that the Registrar after assessing the financial position of such society, may cancel or modify or relax any such order passed under clause (a), (b), (c) or (d) of sub-section (4) upon such terms and conditions as he may deem fit.

76C. Ailing Co-operative Credit societies.— (1) For the purposes of this section an Ailing Co-operative credit society shall mean a Co-operative credit society and such other co-operative societies engaged in the business of credit which does not fulfill any of the financial parameters specified in sub-section (2) to qualify to be a financially healthy co-operative society:—

(2) A financially healthy co-operative credit society means a co-operative credit society which fulfills the following financial parameters, namely:—

Explanation: “Non Performing Assets” means assets which do not generate income. In case any loan account, which does not generate income for more than 180 days, it should be treated as non performing assets.

(b) Utilization: The practical and effective use of funds of the society as per the directives of the Registrar or in accordance with the Bye Laws and the business of the society. The following financial parameters shall determine the Utilization of the cooperative credit society.

(i) Loans and Advances: The total Loans and Advances extended by the financially healthy Cooperative Credit society shall be 70 % of the liabilities in the balance sheet.

(ii) SLR: SLR or Statutory Liquidity Ratio is the minimum percentage of deposits that a bank has to maintain in form of gold, cash or other approved securities. The Proportion of SLR for a financially healthy cooperative credit society shall be 20 % of the total deposits (i.e. 16.80 % of the total liabilities).

(iii) CRR: CRR or Cash Reserve Ratio refers to a certain percentage of total deposits of the cooperative credit society which is required to be maintained in the form of cash reserve with a central Bank. The Proportion of CRR for a financially healthy cooperative credit society shall be 5% of the total deposits (i.e. 4.2 % of the total liabilities)

(iv) Fixed Assets: Land, buildings, equipments or any assets which are purchased by the society for term use and are not likely to be converted quickly into cash. For a financially healthy cooperative credit society the total liability on account of Fixed assets shall be 4% of the total liabilities in the balance sheet.

(v) Other assets: Means miscellaneous assets that cannot be classified as current assets, fixed assets or intangible assets. For a financially healthy cooperative credit society the total liability on account of Fixed assets shall be 5 % of the total liabilities in the annual balance sheet.

(3) Where a Co-operative credit society does not fulfill the financial parameters as specified in sub-section 2, such co-operative credit society shall be classified as ailing Co-operative credit society. The Registrar shall direct the Board of Directors of such ailing co-operative credit society to submit detailed action plan complying the requirements of financial parameters as contained in sub-section (2) above. The Registrar may suggest measures to streamline the functioning of such ailing societies and may also seek assistance of any person appointed under sub-section (3) of section 4 of this Act so that such co-operative credit societies fulfil the specified financial parameters confirming their financial health.

(2) The Registrar shall display on his website a list of such ailing co-operative credit societies for information of depositors and general public.

76D. Inquiry into working of ailing co-operative credit societies.— (1) The Registrar may make such inquiry as he may deem fit, to ascertain the financial condition of the ailing co-operative credit society, upon information received or upon his own knowledge about such ailing co-operative credit society.

(2) The Registrar may, if he deems necessary or expedient so to do require by order, the Deputy Registrar or any subordinate officer to enquire into the affairs of such ailing co-operative credit society and make a report with respect to matters as specified in the order.

(3) The Deputy Registrar or any subordinate officer so appointed under sub-section (2) above shall complete its inquiry as expeditiously as possible and submit its report to the Registrar within thirty days from the date of such order:

Provided that the Registrar may extend the said period upto fifteen days by recording the reasons in writing.

(4) The Registrar shall conclude its inquiry as expeditiously as possible and pass final order suggesting the action for such ailing co-operative credit society within sixty days from the commencement of the inquiry:

Provided that the Registrar may extend the said period to ninety days with the approval of Government, by recording the reasons for such extension. An opportunity of hearing shall be granted to such ailing co-operative credit society and to present their cases so also to comply with the requirements of the financial parameters as contained in sub-section (2) of section 76 C.

76E. Powers of the Registrar to make suitable order on completion of inquiry of an ailing Co-operative credit society.— (1) The Registrar, after making an inquiry under section 76D, by an order in writing, decide whether it is practicable for the ailing credit co-operative society to achieve the financial parameters as contained in sub-section (2) of section 76C within reasonable time frame. The Registrar shall, subject to such restrictions or conditions as may be specified in the order, give such time to the ailing co-operative credit society to achieve the financial parameters.

(2) If the Registrar decides under sub-section (1) that it is not practicable for an ailing Co-operative Society to achieve the financial parameters as contained in sub-section 2 of section 76C, within a reasonable time and that it is necessary or expedient in the public interest to adopt all or any of the measures specified in section 76E in relation to the said ailing co-operative credit society, he may, as soon as may be, by order in writing, direct any of his subordinate officer under whose jurisdiction the society is functioning or apex society specified in the order to prepare such scheme as may be specified in the order providing for measures in relation to such ailing co-operative credit society.

(3) The Registrar may,— (a) if order made under sub-section (2) is not complied with by the ailing co-operative credit society concerned; or

(b) if the ailing co-operative credit society fails to revive in pursuance of the said order, pass a fresh order in respect of such ailing co-operative credit society.

(4) An appeal shall lie to the Secretary (Cooperation) to the Government upon any such order passed by the Registrar under section 76 D or section 76 E within a period of 30 days from the date of such order.

76F. Preparation and sanction of schemes.— Where an order is made under sub-section (3) of section 76D in relation to any ailing co-operative credit society, the subordinate officer under whose jurisdiction the society is functioning or Apex society specified in the order shall prepare as expeditiously as possible and ordinarily within a period of sixty days from the date of such order, a scheme in terms of said order with respect to such ailing co-operative credit society.

76G. Reference to the Government by the Registrar.— The Registrar shall make an annual report to the Government of ailing co-operative credit societies with particular reference to their activities and suggestions, if any, for the strengthening of such ailing co-operative credit societies.”.
